Centering Classroom Teachers in Anti-Oppressive Instruction

September 23-24, 2021
Online

This event is specifically designed to empower K-12 public school teachers to facilitate anti-oppressive curriculum and instruction in the classroom, through collaborative learning and networking experiences over two days of intensive professional learning. Organizations are invited to register in teams including curriculum administrator, instructional coaches, general and special education teachers, and teachers of English to speakers of other language (TESOL).
