Midwest and Plains Equity Assistance Center 2023 Calendar of Events

Introduction to the Midwest and Plains (MAP) Equity Assistance Center

At the Midwest and Plains \(MAP\) Equity Assistance Center, a project of the Great Lakes Equity Center at Indiana University-Purdue University-Indianapolis, we are committed to school and system transformation toward racial, disability, and other forms of educational justice. The MAP Center provides three tiers of technical assistance related to race, sex, national origin, and religion desegregation to K-12 public education agencies in a 13-state region free of charge.

A Note about Accessibility

All Center publications on our website are screen reader-friendly and alt text is used whenever possible in all our materials. At our live events, we can provide ASL or CART, foreign language interpretation and audio amplification upon request. All virtual event recordings are accompanied by downloadable transcriptions. For on-site events, we ensure that event locations are wheelchair accessible. For additional accommodation requests or accessibility questions for events, please contact the Center at (317) 278-3493 or email at glec@iupui.edu

Professional Learning Events for Tier II & III Partners

Partners at Tier II & III levels can engage with MAP Center leadership for their organization's systemic transformation toward educational equity. This includes elective learning opportunities for all partners and requisite learning opportunities for partners with signed MOUs with the Center. Service provision can take many forms in its approach and learning modalities; the MAP Center consistently provides a customized technical assistance team that provides timely, robust, and high-quality assistance as partners lead to realize their equity-oriented goals.

Equity Context Analysis Process (ECAP)

This Professional learning event is not on the calendar but is available upon request for assistance here. The ECAP is a comprehensive data collection and analysis process developed and used by the Midwest and Plains Equity Assistance Center (MAP Center) with Systemic Equity Partners to provide an overview of the extent to which aspects of educational equity are evident in the school district, identify areas that may be opportunities for growth related to advancing educational equity, and support equity-oriented strategic planning efforts, as well as ongoing monitoring and assessment activities related to promoting educational equity.

Systems Assessment of Equity and Justice in Education (SAEJE)

This Professional learning event is not on the calendar but is available upon request for assistance here. In efforts to gather information that will inform equity-focused strategic planning endeavors, school districts partner with the Midwest and Plains Equity Assistance Center (MAP Center) to engage in a systems context analysis via the Systems Assessment of Equity and Justice in Education (SAEJE). The Systems Assessment of Equity and Justice in Education (SAEJE) is a set of facilitation modules, data collection and analysis tools, and team meaning-making processes developed by the MAP Center to enable districts to independently self-assess the extent to which aspects of educational equity are evident in the district, and identify areas that may be opportunities for growth related to advancing educational equity and ensuring educational justice.
