

EQUITY IN ACTION: EMPOWERING ALL STUDENTS TOWARD SOCIAL JUSTICE

We are very pleased to announce that your district has been invited to attend the Midwest and Plains Equity Assistance Center EquiLearn Focus Session. EquiLearn Focus Sessions bring district teams together from across multiple states for an exciting and rare opportunity to learn about equity and transformative change, while networking and learning from other districts in our surrounding states.

This year's EquiLearn Focus Session is focused on honoring student voice toward social justice. This event brings together educators and students to engage in discussions, reflection activities, and opportunities to receive individualized consultations from MAP Center staff members.

This event is invitation-only and free. We are excited for your district to be a part of this professional learning experience.

Date: Tuesday, April 17, 2018

Time: 8:30 am—4:30 pm

Location:

Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis

University Hall, Room 1006

301 University Blvd

Indianapolis, IN 46202

SESSION TOPICS

- Cultivating critical consciousness and promoting youth social justice awareness
- Providing a framework for empowering youth to be social justice actors in their school and community
- Leveraging and supporting students' social justice awareness and youth-driven activism
- Planning to use a framework for youth social justice action

WHO'S INVITED?

A team of 3-6 people, is invited, including both educators and students. We ask that districts bring at least 2-3 educators who either 1) work directly with empowering students, including non-dominant students in leadership positions within school, or 2) are in positions of decision-making in order to support and empower students. We encourage your team to include at least 2 students with different perspectives and formal/informal leadership positions in school (ages 14-18).

DEADLINE

The deadline to register is Tuesday, April 3, 2018. The PASSWORD to register is Cadrelll (where III is the Roman numeral for 3).
