

EQUILearn VIRTUAL ROUNDTABLE

KNOWING YOUR RIGHTS: HOW TO SUPPORT UNDOCUMENTED STUDENTS

April 25, 2018

3:30-4:30 PM EST/EDT

2:30 CT

1:30 MT

REGISTER HERE

The virtual roundtable examines the laws and policies concerning undocumented students and provides a discussion of how best stakeholders can support their undocumented students.

The discussion is intended to provide participants with the opportunity to talk with and ask questions of a subject matter expert related to the various laws and policies concerning undocumented students. By the end of the roundtable, you will be able to better understand the laws and policies concerning undocumented students, know their rights, and be able to advise and advocate for them.

Dr. David Nguyen will give you an update on the law concerning undocumented students and DACA, create a discussion on navigating policies for academic success for undocumented students, and provide support to school leaders and teachers working with this group of students.

By the end of the roundtable, you will be able to better understand the laws and policies concerning undocumented students, know the rights of these students, and be able to advise and advocate for them

Dr. David Nguyen is an assistant professor of Educational Leadership & Policy Studies at The University of Texas at San Antonio and a faculty affiliate at the University of North Dakota. His research focuses on the intersection of law and policy with education to examine the policies and practices that address inequities of access to education for underrepresented students. Dr. Nguyen is admitted to the bars of the states of Indiana and North Dakota.

Continue the conversation! Meet @higheredlawprof directly following the roundtable in a Twitter #MAPChat.

* For accessibility requests, please email us at glec@iupui.edu*

