AN INTERSECTIONAL APPROACH TO BUILDING INCLUSIVE SCHOOLS

EquiLearn Virtual Roundtable
Federico R. Waitoller, Ph.D.
The University of Illinois at Chicago
Equity Fellow
Midwest & Plains Equity Assistance Center

June 11, 2020
COMMITMENTS

Stay engaged

Speak your truth

Experience discomfort

Expect and accept non-closure

(Singleton & Linton, 2006)
This virtual roundtable is interactive - join the discussion live via the chat feature

To reduce noise distractions, we ask participants to mute their microphones when not speaking

A recording of this virtual roundtable and accompanying materials will be posted to greatlakesequity.org
TODAY’S DIRECTORS

Robin G. Jackson, M.A.
Products Coordinator
MAP Center
Technical Director

Diana R. Lazzell, B.S.
Outreach & Engagement Coordinator
MAP Center
Assistant Technical Director
Federico R. Waitoller, Ph.D.
The University of Illinois at Chicago

MAP Center Equity Fellow
Inclusive Education… Clarifying a Misunderstood Notion
FROM MAINSTREAMING...
The assumption is that the regular classroom is the LRE for every child but not necessarily the most appropriate placement for all children… The regular classroom is the appropriate placement for students with disabilities if they are able to function in the regular classroom without significantly altering the regular education curriculum or student expectations ... If students are not able learn the regular curriculum with supports, and then their performance in class is taken as evidence that the regular classroom is not the appropriate placement for them.

(Dudley-Marling and Burns, 2014 p. 19)
TOWARDS AN INTERSECTIONAL APPROACH TO INCLUSIVE EDUCATION
INTERSECTIONAL APPROACH

Redistribution

Recognition

Representation

Intersecting identities and isms
RECOMMENDATIONS FOR PRACTICE
I. Develop and implement an intersectional inclusive pedagogy
II. Provide behavioral and emotional supports based on culturally responsive positive behavior support principles and solidarity
III. Provide access to health, counseling, and psychological services that can provide supports for all students, not just those identified with disabilities.
IV. Provide spaces and structures that support students’ collective organizing
Provide ongoing learning opportunities for principals, teachers, students, parents, and other key stakeholders based on inquiry projects, with a focus on critical reflexivity, justice, and inclusive education.
Questions & Discussion
ADDITIONAL CENTER RESOURCES

EquiLearn Virtual Roundtable: Inequities Faced by Students with Disabilities and Charter Schools

Advocating for Black and Latinx Students with Disabilities: A Conversation with Charter School Teachers

Can Charter Schools Erase Racial Inequities Evidenced in Access to General Education Classrooms?
FOLLOW US ON SOCIAL MEDIA!

Like Us on Facebook!

Follow us on Twitter! @GreatLakesEAC
THANK YOU FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION!

PLEASE COMPLETE YOUR SURVEY AND PROVIDE ADDITIONAL FEEDBACK

Post-Session Questionnaire

The authors are grateful for the support of the Great Lakes Equity Center, under the Office of Elementary and Secondary Education’s Grant S004D110021. The funding agency’s endorsement of the ideas expressed in this article should not be inferred.

Great Lakes Equity Center
glec@iupui.edu
greatlakesequity.org
317-278-3493